

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.-OCTOBER 9, 1860.

COMMERCIAL.

PRICES OF PRODUCE IN ALEXANDRIA.
CARS, VESSELS, AND WAGONS, (YESTERDAY.)	$3.50	(@ $3.62)
Flour, Sack	6.00	(@ 6.12)
Do. Extra	7.00	(@ 8.00)
Do. Family	1.10	(@ 1.50)
Wheat, White	1.30	(@ 1.40)
Do. Red	1.30	(@ 1.40)
Corn, White	0.70	(@ 0.71)
Do. Mixed	0.68	(@ 0.70)
Do. Yellow	0.70	(@ 0.90)
Cotton, White	0.70	(@ 0.75)
Do. Mixed	0.70	(@ 0.75)
Oats	0.40	(@ 0.32)
Rye	1.25	(@ 1.00)
Dried Apples	1.50	(@ 2.00)
Green Apples	0.40	(@ 0.50)
Bush Potatoes	5.75	(@ 6.25)
Clover Seeds	3.00	(@ 3.50)
Tomato Seeds	1.00	(@ 1.25)
Hemp Grass	1.25	(@ 0.00)
Kentucky Blue Grass	4.00	(@ 0.00)
Plants	1.40	(@ 1.43)
Seeds, 1/2 hundred	0.75	(@ 1.00)
Plaster, Lamp, retail, delivered	per Cwt.
Ground do.	6.00	(@ 6.00)
Brick, Peruvian	5.75	(@ 6.00)
Sand	1.00	(@ 0.00)
Gumbo, Louisiana	28	(@ 0.00)
Mexican white	25	(@ 0.00)
Mexican A. t.	25	(@ 0.00)
Mosquit. A.	20	(@ 0.00)
African white	40	(@ 0.00)
Powder & Co's Sodas	Phosphate	50 (@ 0.00)
Elkide	40 (@ 0.00)
Jarvis Island	40 (@ 0.00)
Manipulated	40 (@ 0.00)
American Company's	35 (@ 0.00)
Rees' Manipulated	50 (@ 0.00)
Swann Island	42 (@ 0.00)
Baker's Island	35 (@ 0.00)
Exquisite De-Burg	48 (@ 0.00)
Sugar Phosphates	30 (@ 0.00)
Bone Dust	1.87 (@ 2.12)
Salts, Fine	1.20 (@ 1.25)
Ground Alumina	2.25 (@ 2.00)
Do. Tarts Island	28 (@ 2.00)
Wood, common unashed	0.23 (@ 0.25)
Do. Do. washed	0.36 (@ 0.37)
Do. Marine unashed	0.25 (@ 0.30)
Do. Do. washed	0.58 (@ 0.43)
Berry, Red, Do. Do.	0.10 (@ 0.18)
Do. Farkins	0.10 (@ 0.14)
Eggs	0.10 (@ 0.12)
Bacon, Hog Round	0.11 (@ 0.12)
Bacon Shoulders	0.11 (@ 0.12)
Bacon Sides	0.13 (@ 0.10)
Pork	0.13 (@ 0.12)
Lard, in Kegs	0.13 (@ 0.14)
Water Brans	0.06 (@ 0.00)
Black-Eyed Peas	1.25 (@ 1.27)
White Beans	0.25 (@ 0.20)
Whiskey	10 (@ 25)
Do. 28 (@ 26)

REMARKS.—The market opened very quiet, and without any change since Saturday. In fact the transactions were limited to sales to retail dealers, and we note sales by the dray load at $4.50 for straight breads. The offerings of Wheat on Change were light, and the market active sales of flour white at 135($1.65), and red at 130($1.50). No sales of prime or choice Whigs of red. Corn continues quiet, with very light receipts, and a limited demand—no change in quotations. Rye and oats inactive and unchanged. Plaster and other Fertilizers continue in active request. The Grocery market opened active and firm, but without notable change.

The Markets.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 8.—Flour quiet. Howard street and 10th $2.62 & 2.75. Wheat steady, red 120 and 126¢; white 140 & 160¢. Corn flour white 72 ($7.50); yellow 85¢ & 70¢. Provisions steady; meat park $19.50 & $19.75; prime $15. Coffe active and unchanged. Whiskey dull at 22($2.25).

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Flour, the higher; State $2.25 & $2.35; Ohio $2.40; Southern $3.75 & $4.00; Wheat 16¢ & 20¢, with a good export inquiry; western red 13¢; white 11¢. Corn flour, mixed 70¢. Provisions dull and unchanged. Whiskey dull at 25($2.25).

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 8.—Flour quiet. Howard street and 10th $2.62 & 2.75. Wheat steady, red 120 and 126¢; white 140 & 160¢. Corn flour white 72 ($7.50); yellow 85¢ & 70¢. Provisions steady; meat park $19.50 & $19.75; prime $15. Coffe active and unchanged. Whiskey dull at 22($2.25).

[COMMUNICATED.]

Having heard that there was to be a large gathering in the village of Millwood, on Saturday last, for the purpose of raising a Breckinridge pole, I repaired thither early in the morning, to see the sport, and enjoy the pleasure. Crops of corn tolerably good, and the farmers are sowing about the usual quantity of wheat. Fish, particularly trout, are plentiful, and oysters are getting fat and fine.

M.

Then the Bishop sitting in his chair, Rev. Dr. Packard read the following letter:

To the Rt. Rev. John D. Do. President Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Boston, Massachusetts.

We the undersigned, the Clergy and Vestry of the City and Parish of Alexandria, and the Diocese of Virginia, do hereby certify that your Church-building is now completed, and respectfully request that you will consecrate it to the worship of Almighty God, to be used by the said congregation in accordance with the usage of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 22, 1860.
Signed: Rev. Dr. SPURGEON, Rector.
Jas. Edwards, Jr., Geo. T. Baldwin,
Chas. R. Hood, S. E. Ridgely,
C. B. Berry, W. J. Entwistle,
Wm. H. Fowle, D. Faunton,
C. E. Lee.

Rev. Dr. Spurgeon read the Sentence of Consecration as follows:

Sixty-four Consecrated.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to put it into the hearts of the good people of this congregation to erect the building in which we are assembled, and through their Rector and Vestry to propose its dedication for the purposes of religious worship; and furthermore that the said members of the congregation have made every arrangement in conformity with the dictates of their religion, and have the sanction and help of their Bishop, we therefore, Laban Jones, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia, do on this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord 1860, consecrate this building to the service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, by the name of Grace Church, solemnly separating it from all unholiness, and dedicating it to the service of the Most High God.

I think Bell and Everett will get a larger vote in the Northern Neck than Whigs have obtained for many years, and hope that my supposition may be correct.

There is but little sickness in this vicinity. Crops of corn tolerably good, and the farmers are sowing about the usual quantity of wheat. Fish, particularly trout, are plentiful, and oysters are getting fat and fine.

M.

Then the Bishop sitting in his chair, Rev. Dr. Packard read the following letter:

To the Rt. Rev. John D. Do. President Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Boston, Massachusetts.

We the undersigned, the Clergy and Vestry of the City and Parish of Alexandria, and the Diocese of Virginia, do hereby certify that your Church-building is now completed, and respectfully request that you will consecrate it to the worship of Almighty God, to be used by the said congregation in accordance with the usage of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 22, 1860.
Signed: Rev. Dr. SPURGEON, Rector.
Jas. Edwards, Jr., Geo. T. Baldwin,
Chas. R. Hood, S. E. Ridgely,
C. B. Berry, W. J. Entwistle,
Wm. H. Fowle, D. Faunton,
C. E. Lee.

Rev. Dr. Spurgeon read the Sentence of Consecration as follows:

Sixty-four Consecrated.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to put it into the hearts of the good people of this congregation to erect the building in which we are assembled, and through their Rector and Vestry to propose its dedication for the purposes of religious worship; and furthermore that the said members of the congregation have made every arrangement in conformity with the dictates of their religion, and have the sanction and help of their Bishop, we therefore, Laban Jones, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia, do on this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord 1860, consecrate this building to the service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, by the name of Grace Church, solemnly separating it from all unholiness, and dedicating it to the service of the Most High God.

I think Bell and Everett will get a larger vote in the Northern Neck than Whigs have obtained for many years, and hope that my supposition may be correct.

There is but little sickness in this vicinity. Crops of corn tolerably good, and the farmers are sowing about the usual quantity of wheat. Fish, particularly trout, are plentiful, and oysters are getting fat and fine.

M.

Then the Bishop sitting in his chair, Rev. Dr. Packard read the following letter:

To the Rt. Rev. John D. Do. President Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Boston, Massachusetts.

We the undersigned, the Clergy and Vestry of the City and Parish of Alexandria, and the Diocese of Virginia, do hereby certify that your Church-building is now completed, and respectfully request that you will consecrate it to the worship of Almighty God, to be used by the said congregation in accordance with the usage of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 22, 1860.
Signed: Rev. Dr. SPURGEON, Rector.
Jas. Edwards, Jr., Geo. T. Baldwin,
Chas. R. Hood, S. E. Ridgely,
C. B. Berry, W. J. Entwistle,
Wm. H. Fowle, D. Faunton,
C. E. Lee.

Rev. Dr. Spurgeon read the Sentence of Consecration as follows:

Sixty-four Consecrated.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to put it into the hearts of the good people of this congregation to erect the building in which we are assembled, and through their Rector and Vestry to propose its dedication for the purposes of religious worship; and furthermore that the said members of the congregation have made every arrangement in conformity with the dictates of their religion, and have the sanction and help of their Bishop, we therefore, Laban Jones, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia, do on this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord 1860, consecrate this building to the service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, by the name of Grace Church, solemnly separating it from all unholiness, and dedicating it to the service of the Most High God.

I think Bell and Everett will get a larger vote in the Northern Neck than Whigs have obtained for many years, and hope that my supposition may be correct.

There is but little sickness in this vicinity. Crops of corn tolerably good, and the farmers are sowing about the usual quantity of wheat. Fish, particularly trout, are plentiful, and oysters are getting fat and fine.

M.

Then the Bishop sitting in his chair, Rev. Dr. Packard read the following letter:

To the Rt. Rev. John D. Do. President Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Boston, Massachusetts.

We the undersigned, the Clergy and Vestry of the City and Parish of Alexandria, and the Diocese of Virginia, do hereby certify that your Church-building is now completed, and respectfully request that you will consecrate it to the worship of Almighty God, to be used by the said congregation in accordance with the usage of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 22, 1860.
Signed: Rev. Dr. SPURGEON, Rector.
Jas. Edwards, Jr., Geo. T. Baldwin,
Chas. R. Hood, S. E. Ridgely,
C. B. Berry, W. J. Entwistle,
Wm. H. Fowle, D. Faunton,
C. E. Lee.

Rev. Dr. Spurgeon read the Sentence of Consecration as follows:

Sixty-four Consecrated.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to put it into the hearts of the good people of this congregation to erect the building in which we are assembled, and through their Rector and Vestry to propose its dedication for the purposes of religious worship; and furthermore that the said members of the congregation have made every arrangement in conformity with the dictates of their religion, and have the sanction and help of their Bishop, we therefore, Laban Jones, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia, do on this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord 1860, consecrate this building to the service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, by the name of Grace Church, solemnly separating it from all unholiness, and dedicating it to the service of the Most High God.

I think Bell and Everett will get a larger vote in the Northern Neck than Whigs have obtained for many years, and hope that my supposition may be correct.

There is but little sickness in this vicinity. Crops of corn tolerably good, and the farmers are sowing about the usual quantity of wheat. Fish, particularly trout, are plentiful, and oysters are getting fat and fine.

M.

Then the Bishop sitting in his chair, Rev. Dr. Packard read the following letter:

To the Rt. Rev. John D. Do. President Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Boston, Massachusetts.

We the undersigned, the Clergy and Vestry of the City and Parish of Alexandria, and the Diocese of Virginia, do hereby certify that your Church-building is now completed, and respectfully request that you will consecrate it to the worship of Almighty God, to be used by the said congregation in accordance with the usage of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 22, 1860.
Signed: Rev. Dr. SPURGEON, Rector.
Jas. Edwards, Jr., Geo. T. Baldwin,
Chas. R. Hood, S. E. Ridgely,
C. B. Berry, W. J. Entwistle,
Wm. H. Fowle, D. Faunton,
C. E. Lee.

Rev. Dr. Spurgeon read the Sentence of Consecration as follows:

Sixty-four Consecrated.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to put it into the hearts of the good people of this congregation to erect the building in which we are assembled, and through their Rector and Vestry to propose its dedication for the purposes of religious worship; and furthermore that the said members of the congregation have made every arrangement in conformity with the dictates of their religion, and have the sanction and help of their Bishop, we therefore, Laban Jones, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia, do on this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord 1860, consecrate this building to the service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, by the name of Grace Church, solemnly separating it from all unholiness, and dedicating it to the service of the Most High God.

I think Bell and Everett will get a larger vote in the Northern Neck than Whigs have obtained for many years, and hope that my supposition may be correct.

There is but little sickness in this vicinity. Crops of corn tolerably good, and the farmers are sowing about the usual quantity of wheat. Fish, particularly trout, are plentiful, and oysters are getting fat and fine.

M.

Then the Bishop sitting in his chair, Rev. Dr. Packard read the following letter:

To the Rt. Rev. John D. Do. President Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Boston, Massachusetts.

We the undersigned, the Clergy and Vestry of the City and Parish of Alexandria, and the Diocese of Virginia, do hereby certify that your Church-building is now completed, and respectfully request that you will consecrate it to the worship of Almighty God, to be used by the said congregation in accordance with the usage of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 22, 1860.
Signed: Rev. Dr. SPURGEON, Rector.
Jas. Edwards, Jr., Geo. T. Baldwin,
Chas. R. Hood, S. E. Ridgely,
C. B. Berry, W. J. Entwistle,
Wm. H. Fowle, D. Faunton,
C. E. Lee.